Try a recipe several times to adjust the spices to your perfect tastes. Don't let your hard earned game meat go to waste.

Being an author and big game hunting guide, I am a very successful hunter and I thought I was a good cook. After watching our professional chefs cook sensationally tasting wild game, I realized that I was an amateur. I didn't know that I needed to see how it was cooked for me to create mouth watering delicacies from my own wild game. There are some recipes I cook four or five times a year. For those I only need the printed copies, but for the really great wild game feast, there is nothing better than Wild Things Show, cooking wild game DVD's.

Our Louisiana style Cajun Chef Dominic Donald shows us the dessert that kids love to help make. Simple, fun and tastes great.

P.S. Never heat game meat in a microwave.
