Being an author and big game hunting guide, I am a very successful hunter and I thought I was a good cook. After watching our professional chef cook sensationally tasting wild game, I realized that I was a poor amateur. I didn't know that I needed to see how it was cooked, for me to create mouth watering delicacies from my own wild game. There are some recipes I cook four or five times a year. For those I only need the printed copies, but for the really great occasional wild game feast, I still watch my Wild Things Show, cooking wild game DVD before I start these recipes.
